

Code of Conduct for Committee Members

The Committee of the club is the main managing body for the Club, managing its finances and activities. Its purpose, responsibilities, composition and other matters are set out in the Constitution of which members should be aware Committee members will be expected to:

- Read and observe the Club Constitution and the Club Rules and set an example in this regard.
- Be fully conversant with all the club Policies & Procedures
- Attend Committee meetings regularly and be informed of agenda matters requiring prior consideration.
- Accept collective responsibility for, and observe decisions made by the Committee.
- Treat all matters with confidentiality unless it is clear that they are not confidential.
- Not represent the club, or authorise expenditure or actions, in matters which require the sanction of the Committee, and which should be referred to it via the Secretary or the Commodore.
- Be honest, and act with integrity